For the purpose of informing interested University of Tennessee-Knoxville faculty, please be aware of the following opportunity. Please note that the other recipients of this announcement could be potential collaborators on this opportunity.

2010-BJS-2662: Visiting Fellow – National Crime Victimization Survey Design

The Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), U.S. Dept. of Justice (DOJ), is soliciting applications seeking applications for the funding of one or more BJS Visiting Fellows in the National Crime Victimization Survey Redesign program. The Fellow’s methodological work would focus primarily on two objectives: developing a modular crime incident report and evaluating the optimal method to incorporate repeat victimization into annual estimates.

For detailed information about this opportunity please see the full solicitation (2010-BJS-2662). To find more opportunities from this agency, please see here.

It is estimated that $200K will be available to support an undetermined number of awards. Cost sharing is not required. Please see the full solicitation for complete award information.

Deadline for Proposal to OR-Sponsored Programs: 6/4/2010
(Please see the solicitation for complete application & submission information.)

Deadline for Proposal Submission to Agency: 6/11/2010

If you have any questions regarding this announcement please contact:

Dr. James Lloyd
Professor and Coordinator of Electronic Research Administration
UT Knoxville Office of Research
Phone: (865) 974-0390
E-mail: jllloyd@utk.edu