The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State, invites applications for an open competition for the U.S. Professional Development Program for EducationUSA Advisers in Fiscal Year 2011. The U.S. Professional Development Program for EducationUSA Advisers will provide a series of professional development opportunities in the United States, which should complement opportunities that are offered overseas. Applicant organizations are encouraged to propose creative, innovative strategies for all components of the Program.

Professional development for EducationUSA advisers is a critical component of the Department of State’s support for EducationUSA and includes a range of opportunities designed to deepen the advisers’ understanding of U.S. higher education and of their role in U.S. public diplomacy. EducationUSA centers are catalysts for the enrollment in U.S. colleges and universities of students and scholars sponsored by the U.S. government and by other sponsors as well as students and scholars seeking U.S. study... opportunities independently. The advising staffs at EducationUSA centers provide comprehensive, balanced advice about the complex range of higher educational opportunities.
