For the purpose of informing interested University of Tennessee-Knoxville faculty, please be aware of the following opportunity. Please note that the other recipients of this announcement could be potential collaborators on this opportunity.

NIJ-2010-2594: Evaluation of the Bureau of Justice Assistance Second Chance Act (FY 2010) – State, Tribal and Local Reentry Courts Program

The National Institute of Justice (NIJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), U.S. Dept. of Justice (DOJ), is soliciting applications for funding for an evaluation of the State, Tribal, and Local Reentry Courts Program funded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) in FY2010 under the Second Chance Act of 2007. The program goal is community safety through recidivism prevention among adult offenders reentering the community from jail or prison. Reentry courts coordinate monitoring, treatment assessment and services, community panels, housing, and other services under judicial oversight with graduated sanctions and incentives. NIJ seeks to examine program processes and outcomes observed during and after participation among adult offenders.

For detailed information about this opportunity please see the full solicitation (NIJ-2010-2594). To find more opportunities from this agency, please see here.

It is estimated that $3M will be available to support 1 award. Cost sharing is not required. Please see the full solicitation for complete award information.

Deadline for Proposal to OR-Sponsored Programs: 6/07/2010
(Please see the solicitation for complete application & submission information.)

Deadline for Proposal Submission to Agency: 6/14/2010

If you have any questions regarding this announcement please contact:

Dr. James Lloyd
Professor and Coordinator of Electronic Research Administration
UT Knoxville Office of Research
Phone: (865) 974-0390
E-mail: jlloyd@utk.edu