For the purpose of informing interested University of Tennessee-Knoxville faculty, please be aware of the following limited submission opportunity. Please note that the other recipients of this announcement could be potential collaborators on this opportunity.

PAR-10-174: International Research Ethics Education and Curriculum Development Award (R25)

The National Institutes of Health is soliciting applications from institutions/organizations that propose to develop masters level curricula and provide educational opportunities for developing country academics, researchers and health professionals in ethics related to performing research involving human subjects in international resource poor settings.

For detailed information about this opportunity please see the full solicitation (PAR-10-174). To find more opportunities from this agency, please see here.

Because the nature and scope of the proposed research ethics education programs will vary from application to application, it is anticipated that the size and duration of each award will also vary. The total amount awarded and the number of awards will depend upon the mechanism, numbers, quality, duration, and costs of the applications received. Cost sharing is not required. Please see the full solicitation for complete award information.

This is a limited submission opportunity. As an eligible applicant institution The University of Tennessee (Knoxville, UTSI, and Institute of Agriculture) may only submit one proposal in response to this solicitation. The Office of Research requires that interested faculty submit a notification of interest to limitsub@utk.edu by 12 PM 04/27/10 for your proposal to receive consideration. In your email include:

- The name and contact information for the principal investigator
- Names of all internal co-investigators
- A descriptive name of the research project proposed
- A brief (one paragraph) description of the research project

Only faculty who have e-mailed their intent to propose by 12 PM 04/27/10 will be allowed to participate if an internal competition is necessary. If an internal competition is necessary all who submitted notifications of interest will be contacted and will be provided with information regarding competition requirements. For more information regarding UT limited submission guidelines, please see here.

Deadline for Notification of Interest to OR: 04/27/2010 12PM

The following deadlines apply only for the proposal selected to go forward:
