For the purpose of informing interested University of Tennessee-Knoxville faculty, please be aware of the following opportunity. Please note that the other recipients of this announcement could be potential collaborators on this opportunity.

PRMTR-10-GR-003-EUR-04281: Young Armenia/Young Turkey/Young America: Social and Economic Challenges for Future Leaders – Grassroots Development in a Modern Democracy

The Office of Public Affairs of the U.S. Embassies in Turkey and Armenia, U.S. Department of State, invites applications for an exchange program involving young professionals and future leaders from Turkey, Armenia and the United States. This exchange program, called “Social and Economic Challenges for Future Leaders: Grassroots Development in a Modern Democracy” will bring young leaders (ages 21-35) from the three countries together to develop grassroots initiatives that will positively impact people’s lives and will result in stronger ties between the three nations.

For complete information on this opportunity please see the full solicitation (here). To find more opportunities from this agency, please see here.

Approximately $500K will be available to support 1 award. Cost sharing is encouraged. Please see the full solicitation for complete award information.

Deadline for Proposal to Sponsored Programs Office: 6/24/2010
(Please see the solicitation for complete application & submission information.)

Please contact Sponsored Programs (4-5066) with questions regarding proposal submission requirements.

Deadline for Proposal Submission to Agency: 7/01/2010

If you have any questions regarding this announcement please contact:

Dr. James Lloyd
Professor and Coordinator of Electronic Research Administration
UT Knoxville Office of Research
Phone: (865) 974-0390
E-mail: jlloyd@utk.edu